THE SIMPSONS Best 20 YEARS Ever

The Simpsons Celebrate 20 years on the air, Sunday January 10th, 2010 on Global Television

Academy Award-nominated filmmaker Morgan Spurlock ("Super Size Me") is set to produce and direct The Simpsons 20th Anniversary Special in 3-D on Ice, which will be neither in 3-D nor on ice. The documentary special will be the momentous conclusion to the "Best. 20 Years. Ever.," a year-long global celebration of the Simpsons that launched in January 2009 and culminates on the 20th anniversary of the series' debut.

In the special, Spurlock will examine the cultural phenomenon of THE SIMPSONS in his distinctive and innovative style. The special will document how the world sees the Simpsons and how the Simpson family has seen the world for two decades.

What, were you surprised?
